Fruit SA is looking for a highly motivated multi-faceted intern (under 30) to join its Head Office in Pretoria. This role offers hands-on exposure to the fruit industry, stakeholder engagement, research, and executive-level support in a fast-paced and professional environment.

Minimum Qualifications

- A Bachelor's degree in:
 - Agricultural Economics, or
 - A related field aligned to the fruit industry value chain.

Responsibilities:

- Provide general administrative and management support to the Industry Affairs Manager, Market Access Liaison Manager and the CEO.
- Stand in for the Executive Office Administrator when required.
- Conduct research and analysis on local and international fruit industry trends.
- Compile, update, and manage the Fruit SA Industry Statistics Booklet and database.
- Assist with Citrus Industry Trust administration, including meeting coordination, minute-taking, stakeholder communication, and record-keeping.
- Represent Fruit SA at industry events, conferences, and engagements, and compile post-event reports.
- Support effective stakeholder engagement with industry bodies, service providers, and other partners.
- Contribute content to internal documents.

Requirements:

- Sound understanding of:
 - The South African agricultural and fruit industry value chain.
 - Local and international agricultural markets.
- A keen interest in the regulatory, technical and phytosanitary aspects of the fruit trade.
- Strong technical, digital and data fluency.
- Excellent written and verbal communication and public-speaking skills.
- Good report writing and numerical skills.
- Strong organisation, planning, and time management abilities.
- Ability to work independently, and as part of a team.
